PHILADELPHIA, May 17,1849.

THISIS to certify that I have long heen afficted with L. the bropey, from which I have suffered nuch hodily as well as mental pain. I have tried many remedies with scarce any benefit, and applied to aeveral eminent physicians, who promised a speedy cure; but, unfortunately, their promises were never realized. I was induced to try Dr. A. J. VANDERSLICE, who soon, by his course of treatment, restored size to health. I am induced to make that public, in hopes that other sunfor tonate may consult alm with like success.

Lou. Journal. This is an assertion right in the face of the published speeches of John Van Baren endorsing the Baltimore platform, declaring that the Constitution requires the extradition of fugitive slaves, and that the Constitution must be obeyed. What is the use of discussion with an editor who thus sets facts at defiance?

If We have repeatedly shown that the whole Democracy of the Union are united, North and South, as a national party, struggling for the maintenance of the compromise and the Union. As an evidence of the soundness of the New England democrata upon this subject, we publish below a letter from Hon. B. F. figliett, a distinguished democrat of Massachusetts, to a gentleman in this city. It makes an appeal to Kentucky to stand by the national democrats of the North in maintaining the cause of State rights and the compromise. We trust that such appeals will meet with a hearty and willing response throughout all the South.

The true hearted democracy of the North are age. with us; and if we do our duly, abolitionism will, in November next, receive a scathing, crushing, overwhelming rebuke, from which it will not soon be resuscitated by all the wl.y strategems of Greeley and Seward.
